Description:

UNITEK uHUB11+ USB-C DisplayLink 4K Docking Station is a high-performance docking station specifically designed for laptops or tablets. It features triple display output, high-speed data transmission, Gigabit networking, and audio/microphone input, along with support for PD fast charging. This versatile docking station meets the needs of various scenarios, including office work, entertainment, and creative activities.

Product Features:

- Triple Display Outputs: Boost your productivity with triple display outputs! Enjoy stunning visuals with a single display supporting up to 4K@30Hz via HDMI. When triple monitors are connected, it supports maximum resolution of 1 x HDMI at 4K@30Hz, 1 x HDMI at 2K@60Hz, and 1 x DVI at 2K@60Hz. The included DVI to VGA adapter makes connecting to older monitors easy, delivering clear 1080p @ 60Hz.

- High Speed Data Transfer: Experience lightning-fast data transfers with 3 x USB-A ports at 5 Gbps. Transfer large files quickly and connect peripherals effortlessly. Backward compatibility with USB 2.0/1.1 ensures all devices work seamlessly, while the BC1.2 (5V/1.5A) charging protocol keeps your mobile devices powered.

- 100W Power Delivery: Power your devices without missing a beat! With up to 100W (20V/5A) Power Delivery pass-through, you can charge your USB-C laptop or host while simultaneously transferring data. The included USB-C to USB-C cable ensures you never run low on battery during important tasks.

- Comprehensive Port Selection: Connect with confidence! UNITEK uHUB11+ USB-C DisplayLink 4K Docking Station includes an RJ-45 Gigabit Ethernet port for blazing-fast wired network connections of up to 1000 Mbps. Enjoy high-fidelity audio with 3.5 mm audio and microphone jacks, ensuring you have everything you need for calls and entertainment.

- System compatibility: Designed to work seamlessly with both Windows 10/11 (32/64-bit) and macOS 10.6 or above, this docking station supports SST/MST, making it the perfect companion for all your devices..
